... Realizing the unfolded form of Light

1

There is a realizable [νοητόν] that you must comprehend with the flower of intuition, because if you direct your intuition toward it and you conceive it as something that is defined, you will not be able to grasp it. It is the power of an irradiating force that dazzles through intuitive realizations.

It cannot be comprehended with vehemence, but with the subtle flame of a subtle intuition that measures everything but that Realizable; and you cannot comprehend it with intensity but tend toward It – directing the pure gaze of your detached soul – to realize It with “empty realization”, as It dwells outside intuition.

96

Because the soul, which, thanks to the potency of the Father, is shining fire, lasts immortal, lady of life, and embraces the fullness of many intimacies of the cosmos.

97

Flying away, the soul of the mortals will lock the Divinity in itself, without a trace of mortality all inebriated by Divinity.

It glories in Harmony: underneath dwells the mortal body.

108

The νόος (noûs) of the Father inseminated symbols throughout the cosmos, him who realizes all that can be realized, those things said to be ineffable beauties.

109

But the νόος of the Father does not welcome the will of the soul until she exits the oblivion and does not pronounce a word, remembering the pure symbol of the Father.

139

...The intimate realization that the Fire heats...
